NATIONAL BOOK TRUST, INDIA FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMME (NBT FAP)

As part of B2B component of New Delhi World Book Fair and to promote National Book Trust, India Financial Assistance Programme (NBT FAP), the Trust organised the 11th Rights Table Forum for publishers during the New Delhi World Book Fair, 2024 from 12 to 13 February 2024. Mr Gareth Edward Rapley, Director of the London Book Fair inaugurated the New Delhi Rights Table on 12 February 2024. Ms Elena Pasoli, Director, Bologna Book Fair and Ms. Jacks Thomas, Director, Bologna Book Plus were the special guests on the occasion. Prof. Milind Sudhakar Marathe, Chairman, NBT and Shri Yuvraj Malik, Director, NBT were also present at the inaugural session.

It may be stated that in order to promote and pursue translations of Indian books into foreign languages, the Trust initiated a financial assistance programme to foreign publishers. The programme will provide a suitable incentive in the form of financial assistance to foreign publishers for translation of original Indian writings published by Indian publishers in English, Hindi and other Indian languages into foreign languages. The programme covers broad categories of fiction, non-fiction, science and technology and books for children, except dictionaries, magazines, journals, textbooks for schools/colleges and professional courses like medicine, engineering, pure & applied sciences, business administration.

To promote Indian books abroad, the Trust has initiated the financial assistance programme for translations. Under the scheme, financial assistance will be given by the Trust to foreign publishers who are keen on translating Indian books into foreign language. In order to give particular focus on writings in Indian languages where an English translation is not available, and to promote such writings abroad, the NBT would facilitate its translation into English, and in such areas the NBT would bear 50% of the translation fee. Open to foreign publishers, the programme has elicited a lot of interest among a cross section of publishers both from India and abroad.

So far, financial assistance has been extended for: The Missing Queen by Samhita Arni (originally published by the Zubaan Books) published by Lit Edizioni SRL in Italian; My Little India by Manoj Das (originally published by NBT) published by Booksea Publishing in Korean; Looking Back: India in 20th Century (originally published by NBT) published by Booksea Publishing in Korean and Stories by Ambai by Ambai (originally published by Kalachuvadu) published by Editions Zulma in French.

TRAINING COURSE IN BOOK PUBLISHING

The Book Publishing Course has been conducted by the National Book Trust, India since 1994. The course has contributed to creating a pool of trained professionals for the publishing industry in India. Earlier, NBT organized a one-month course in Delhi and short-term courses in other parts of the country. However, during the COVID-19 pandemic situation, we have designed a three-month-long online course for the benefit of students across the country. We have also re-launched the course with more comprehensive and detailed sessions. Previously, there were 25 sessions of 2 hours duration, but presently, the course has been changed to 50 sessions of 2 hours. The selection of the faculty has also been made with care to ensure that the students could get insights from the best publishing professionals and experts.

Our innovative and unique Certificate Course in Publishing is the first in India to offer comprehensive training to students and exposure to the publishing industry. Designed to address the skill gaps within the publishing industry, this course allows students to explore all elements of all sectors of the publishing landscape and benefit from cutting-edge industry-inspired learning. Students study the modules in this Certificate Course including Introduction to Publishing, Editorial, Design and Production, Marketing and Sales, Sectors of Publishing, eBook and Audio Book, and Internship and a Publishing Project. A student gains insight into 21st-century publishing and the wide range of roles available in the industry. Students also explore the various stages of publishing, from initial ideas and commissioning to cover design, book launches and sales data analysis.

Students also develop professional publishing practice through the one-month-long publishing internship and another month's publishing project module.

During the period under preview, the Trust organised two online training courses in book publishing from 7 January to 9 April 2023, and 28 October 2023 to 4 February 2024.
